HAVAS

Paris, June 9th—M. Constans, the Minister of the Interior, made an important political speech in Perigueux yesterday. Amongst other things, he said that the present French Government was striving to produce a true republic—prudent, alert and peaceful. "It will not be France" added the orator, "who will seek quarrels without motive or reason." These words were enthusiastically applauded.

Potsdam, June 9th—The Crown Prince of Italy arrived here to-day.

Buda-Pesth, June 9—In receiving the Austro-Hungarian delegations yesterday, the Emperor Francis Joseph declared that he was confident that peace would be maintained. He added that it was nevertheless necessary to keep up the present armament.

GALVESTON.

Paris, June 8—The Emperor Francis Joseph received a number of Austro-Hungarian delegations yesterday and made a speech to the effect that the political situation had not changed since 1880. The relations of Austria and Hungary with the Balkan States were friendly. He was confident in the maintenance of peace through the instrumentality of the Triple Alliance which would continue to exist to that end.

Berlin, June 8—The Emperor has recovered and reviewed the troops on horseback.

London, June 8—At the renewed request of Nicolaieff, the Bulgarian ex-Minister of War, Prince Fernando has promised to commute Panitza's sentence.

Berlin, June 8—The Hamburger Nachrichten says that Bismarck will use his powerful influence in Parliament in favour of Caprivi with whose home and foreign policy he is known to sympathise. A letter from Wissman says that cruisers are unable to put down the slave trade and that the only mode of success would be to establish military garrisons at different parts of the coast.

Paris, June 9th—Carnot was the initiator of the liberation of the Duc d'Orleans; a large section of the Republican party wished him to be set free on July 14th, but Carnot did not deem this prudent as the Royalists would have taken it as an insult. An interpellation in the Chamber of Deputies proved that a strong minority of the Republicans were in favor of the act of clemency being performed in that special manner; the Government, nevertheless, had a large majority and do not fear any unfavorable consequences. The increased strength of the Government is clearly shown in the advanced quotations of their stock; for the first time, the 3 per cents have reached 90. As the rise is continuing, it may be taken as a proof that capitalists are now convinced of the stability of the Republic.

London, June 9th—Yesterday there was a great working men's meeting in Hyde Park at which 25000 were present. When leaving the park, a man named Henry Havitsch drew upon himself the illwill of the crowd, but was protected by the police who made several arrests.

WEST COAST TELEGRAMS.

Valparaiso, June 9—The "Potosi" sailed to-day for Liverpool.

At the sitting of the Council of State, Sres. P. C. Cuadra and D. J. Herrera energetically opposed the promulgation of the ordinance against unions, but it was carried by 4 votes; they have consequently resigned their seats and have been replaced by Sres A Nañez and M Vargas.

The President of the Republic has had a consultation with several persons of impartial political views with the object of finding out an equitable solution of the situation.

The Senate to day continued the discussion on the Elections' Bill and approved the first 4 clauses. The Vice President of the Senate, Sr Ramon Donoso, presented his resignation in order to regain the right of voting; it was, however, refused by 13 to 3.

THE CRISIS.

RESIGNATION OF MR. URIBURU.

DR. PACHECO AND THE NATIONAL BANK.

POLITICS AND FINANCE.

MR. URIBURU'S LETTER.

MINISTER ZAVALIA'S ANSWER.

DRS. GARCIA AND ASTIGUETA JOIN THE CABINET.

The excitement that ran through the city yesterday reminded one of the Cabinet crisis of the month of April. The sensation of the hour was the resignation of the Minister of Finance and of his colleague of Education, Justice and Worship. The Minister of War was expected to send in his resignation also. The Cabinet crisis was so sudden and so unexpected that it was doubted at first. On the Bolsa, people were blissfully ignorant of the danger till Sunday evening. Brokers sold on Sunday morning gold at 118 per cent premium; on Monday the premium darted to 150 per cent, firm as a rock.

It leaked out that Minister Uriburu had requested the resignation "en masse" of the whole National Bank management. This request involved the sacrifice of Dr Pacheco, chairman of the bank, and of a board of tried and trusty friends of the Government. Minister Uriburu, however, had prevailed so far on the President of the Republic that the step was agreed on, a solitary exception being made in favor of only one member of the bank board. This concession necessarily defeated the whole plan. The President refused to listen to the withdrawal of Chairman Pacheco who had served his Government for so many years in the important trusts of Cabinet Minister and Bank President. The Minister of Finance proposed to send Dr. Pacheco on a special financial mission to Europe, but the Commissioner on whom this honor was thrust refused to accept it unless he continued to hold his post as Chairman of the Bank. In fact, neither the Chairman, Dr. Pacheco nor the Board volunteered to resign. This placed the President on the horns of a dilemma. It was a question of to be or not to be. Either the Government decreed the dismissal of the Board and Chairman, or Minister Uriburu had to resign; the latter course was adopted.

On the heels of Minister Uriburu's resignation followed the rumour that the London 5 o/o loan for 40 millions had fallen through, but this was not believed On Saturday the Government telegraphed to the negotiators in London that all the terms proffered were agreed upon. This settles the matter; the bankers in London make a large advance and the Government must apply to Congress to change the 4½ per cents into 5 o/o bonds. It is, however asserted that Minister Uriburu's signature was not affixed to the agreement made on Saturday; even in the event of this being true, the fact cannot disturb the negotiation, unless the views of the London bankers are altered by the receipt of telegrams from here on the phenomenal rise in gold and the crisis in the Cabinet. People in London will be amazed when they read at breakfast in this morning's papers that the gold premium at Buenos Ayres rose from 118 to 150 o/o on Monday. But in these latitudes the unexpected always happens.

LATER.

Dr. Juan Agustin Garcia has been appointed Mr. Uriburu's successor. We must confess, that in the market, Mr. Garcia's financial theories which are supposed to be well known, cause some apprehension. But we, for our part, think that the splendid management of the National Mortgage Bank is an excellent recommendation of the distinguished lawyer. Furthermore, Dr. Garcia is not a stranger to our London friends, many of whom have often expressed great faith in him. In accepting the portfolio of finance, he will undertake a most ungrateful task, but his political affinities may enable him to succeed where Mr. Uriburu failed. At all events, the market may remain assured that the finances of the nation will not be entrusted to inexperienced hands when manipulated by Dr. Garcia. If, however, the talented lawyer believes in the issue of more paper money or more Cedulas we should advise him not to relinquish his post at the head of the Mortgage Bank.

Sr. Uriburu's resignation, as well as Sr. Alcorta's, has been accepted. Dr. Astigueta has been appointed Minister of Justice and Public Instruction. Both of the new Ministers were sworn in yesterday.

The text of Sr. Uriburu's resignation of the office of Finance Minister of the Republic is in the following terms;—

"To H.E., the President of the Republic,

When I accepted the Finance Portfolio, I was under the impression that Your Excellency intended to modify the mode of administration which had then led the Republic into a painful situation and I cheerfully sacrificed my time and trouble in the hope of remedying the evil.

At the meetings of the Cabinet on the 6th and 7th instant, my general policy of Finance was unanimously approved; one alteration advised by me was the necessity of changing the president and directors, who represent the Government, of the National Bank.

Since the said meetings, Y. E. arranged with me, in your private house, the names of those who were to replace them, but, some hours afterwards, the Minister of the Interior, in your name announced to me that the arrangement was at an end. Convinced of the necessity of the reform in question, which had been agreed to by your Government and subsequently annulled by your wish, I possessed no further authority or power to be of service to the country and my self-respect pointed out the only proper course to be adopted. I, therefore, now present to Y. E. my definite resignation of the post of Secretary to the Finance Department.

Pray accept etc.

(Signed) Francisco Uriburu.

Sr. Uriburu's resignation was accepted in the following terms;—

"To Citizen Don F. Uriburu,

I am authorised by the President of the Republic to inform you that a decree of this date has been issued, accepting your resignation, and thanking you for your services.

I have, at the same time, to rectify certain ideas expressed in your note which, in the opinion of the Government, are wrong, and which they ought not to appear to authorise by their silence.

In offering you the Portfolio of Finance, the President did not believe that the method of administration hitherto pursued had led the Republic to a disastrous situation, nor did you say anything as to the necessity of altering it, nor were any conditions made by you in accepting the office.

What took place at the meetings on the 6th and 7th inst. and the subsequent arrangement to which you refer, are not, in the opinion of the Government, a sufficient motive for stating that you had no further power to serve the country, since the withdrawal of the President of the National Bank, even if at first assented to, was agreed to because it was thought that Dr. Pacheco had accepted a financial mission offered by you, according to your own showing; this did not so happen and therefore the President did not believe that he ought to cast a slur on one of his best friends, whose talents and eminent services to the country nobody ignores.

I also correct the statement that the financial plan, read at these meetings, was unanimously approved, since it was reserved for further consideration as some of your bases were at first sight unacceptable.

Besides, the Cabinet did not accept nor agree to accept the reform in the National Bank alluded to, since it was the exclusive privilege of the President, to whom it was proposed in the form of an imposition which he did not immediately refuse, as he was not desirous of losing your services in the Cabinet.

I salute, etc.,

(Signed) Sabastiano J. Zavalia"

THE CABINET CRISIS.

On Saturday every thing looked serene; telegrams were sent to London announcing that the Government was agreed on the terms of the bankers in the negotiation of the 5 o/o loan, and nobody suspected that in the next 24 hours the Cabinet would be a prey to crisis and dissolution. The harmony in the Cabinet was reflected in the market by a sharp fall in the gold premium: on Sunday brokers sold gold at 118 o/o premium, yet yesterday that meteoric premium rose to 150 o/o—a rise of 32 points in twenty four hours. The mere announcement of difficulties in the Cabinet and the threat of the Finance Minister's resignation shook the market to its foundations. The stern reality of the dilemma is now quoted on the Bolsa black-board.

Not two months ago the new Cabinet was ushered in with the brilliant prospects of a policy of reparation. The old Cabinet succumbed in the midst of a financial and political crisis, whilst the new one emerged from the averted storm with promise of good weather and better times. Two months have elapsed, but nothing has been done to confirm those hopes beyond the negotiation of a foreign loan that is now imperilled, and the solemn declarations of the Minister of Finance before Congress on the clandestine issues which have increased the dangers of the situation.

Verily, the position of the President is not to be envied. Minister Uriburu's disclosures to Congress place the President in the most awkward situation, especially now that he is confronted with the resignation of the very Minister who made these disclosures before the country. It is quite evident that the Minister would not have made such startling disclosures and accepted the responsibility of such extraordinary proceedings, unless determined to extirpate the causes that led to such anomlies as the violation of the Bank Act of 1887 and the decreeing of a new kind of "curso forzoso" in the very midst of "curso forzoso." The public will believe that the President cares not to support the policy of his Minister of Finance, and this will render the task of re-casting the Cabinet, for two other Ministers will probably follow Mr. Uriburu's example, doubly difficult. The resignation of the Minister of Finance is an open declaration to the country that his policy is a dream at the best.

It is believed in the market, and with good cause, that the National Bank defeated the Minister of Finance. Not three days ago we pointed to the necessity of overhauling both the National Bank and the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres, to give the public an explanation of some kind to justify the Cabinet measures of 29th March, 8th and 10th of April. After incurring the odium arising out of a flagrant breach of the Banking Law, it is only fair to the Government that resorted to such extremities that some investigation be made to find out the causes that reduced both state banks to such a state of utter inability to meet their deposits, and some measures be adopted to prevent a recurrence of such discreditable confession of weakness. It is only fair to the public that applauded the heroic measures of the Executive to save the State banks from bankruptcy that some tangible guarantees be afforded to reinstate these banks in the popular favor they should always enjoy. The very banks were interested in a reform that might restore their credit to its former unassailable position. Minister Uriburu saw this and began his arduous task by requesting a thorough change in the management of the National Bank, but here he found his stumbling block. In the eyes of the public he falls with dignity, and that public, whilst giving him full credit for his good intentions, will not be slow in giving expression to its apprehension that the keynote of the financial and political situation is in the National Bank.

We have not yet learnt to know that crises are never removed by half-measures. When extirpating a cancer we must take it out by the roots; otherwise we merely prune the growth to give it fresh vigor. All the evils of the present financial situation must be laid at the doors of the so-called free-banks; thither the Minister directed his steps and on the threshold of the greatest of all these banks, the National Bank, his intrusion was resented and arrested. Under such circumstances we think that it would have been more dignified if the whole Board of the National Bank had resigned, if for no other motives than those of delicacy. Meantime, the Board stands, the Minister falls, but the public sits in judgment, and we must yet hear the sentence in this ocean of financial troubles, aggravated by so much mystification, so much intrigue, and so much vacillation on the part of those who should have the character to resolve and the energy to act. We stand to-day in the same financial plight as in April, and we doubt much that if an angel were to come from heaven he were able to inspire confidence in this now utterly callous and incredulous market.

RACING.

Our anticipations of a good day's sport at Palermo on Sunday were fully justified. From the Premio Novedad till the curtain finally fell on the victory of Cepeda in the Premio Consuelo, achieved in semi-darkness, everything went well and brightly, and interest was fully sustained throughout.

In the "piece de resistance," the Premio Hipodromo Argentino, Gloriation's principal opponents were the two cracks of the Ec. General Rivas, hitherto unbeaten this season. Favoured by the start, he made mince-meat of them; the surprise of the race, however, was that the very moderate Ambush finished in front of Boqueron, a result that could hardly have been expected from previous running.

Mr. Kemmis' unlucky star is still in the ascendant; always near never first. In the case of Miss Mary in the Premio Novedad, her old jockey, the hunchback Diaz, had the mount, to which he appeared to do scant justice; indeed, we heard several Argentines, who are surely not prejudiced in favour of English jockeys, say that, with Woodburn up, she would surely have won. The boy just named rode a very good race on Enchantress who likewise carried the blue and black into second place, a most unenviable position. All good sportsmen will be delighted to see the popular owner and his able trainer experience Fortune's smiles; Fraser's horses are invariably well turned out and he thoroughly deserves a turn of luck.

The Premio Resistencia provided a veritable sensation. After Revelacion, who had not previously been seen in public this year, had been backed as if the race had been all over, bar shouting, the five competitors were despatched to a fair start; by the time they had traversed one round they were exactly as level as at the start; soon afterwards, when Revelacion was expected to go to the front, he was seen to be in distress, and the finish was left to the two least fancied of the party, Ministro and Otello, of whom the latter, the absolute outsider, won somewhat cleverly. Such are the variations of public form! Who would have been bold enough to assert that Mariscal could fail to present four kilos to Otello? Perhaps, like Oliver, he has made considerable improvement this year and will in future have to be reckoned with in long races.

The respectable running of Cepeda in the Premio Novedad was the best possible tip when she was pulled out again for the Premio Consuelo, which she won in the style of a thoroughly good mare, the only misfortune being that this race, which was full of variety and excitement, should have been run in partial darkness.

LONDON LETTER.

MAY 1ST.

INTERNATIONAL SOCIALIST DEMONSTRATION.

APPREHENSIONS AND ANTICIPATIONS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

April 25th.

Mrs. Crawford, the Paris Correspondent of the Daily News, says:

"This morning I saw M. Zola. He believes that, whether by pacific or violent means, the present social state of the world is about to disappear. Those who love it may write their Jeremiads, for it will soon be a ruin. He looks upon the May Day Labor Manifestation as the premonitory sign of an universal crisis. Were he a workman, he would certainly take part in the demonstration; and were he a member of the Government of any industrial country he would watch it closely, not to put it down, unless indeed it developed into a movement of pillage and physical aggression, but to discover of what law of human evolution it is the expression. If justice is the necessary basis of every free State, then the foundations of modern nations are certainly shaky. What makes this discrepancy between modern practice and the theories set forth by preachers, philosophers and legislators more dangerous is that it is agreed to ignore or ridicule any earnest effort to help the workman. A good deal has already been done, but these same philosophers and legislators may expect a very uneasy future unless the policy of their respective nations is made to square with the theories of justice which they are never tired of propounding."

Speaking of the letter just quoted, the Star says:

"M. Zola's views of the labor question are ours. We do not believe that economy, or legislation, or society has said its last word in the present state of the world. We regard society as passing through a stage of evolution, and that men of foresight will see that the process is carried through in peace and order and by judicious meeting of the demands of labor half way. It is a monstrous absurdity to suppose that a society in which all the toil is on one side, and all the law and all life's chances are in the hands of a few out of millions—it is monstrous, we say, to suppose that this is or can or ought to be a permanent state. If that were seriously to be believed, then life would be a thing so worthless, progress so much a mere name, legislation would touch so superficially the real wants and woes of society, that every reformer had better fall into the despair and apathy of an Oriental fatalist than bother himself with political conflict. But it is not so. Working men armed with the vote, strong in combination—above all strong, if possible, in unity of purpose—can extort from society, whether it will or no, better terms for the wage-earner, a more equal distribution of wealth and opportunity, a brighter and broader horizon for the millions of workers with their hands."

The Star's Paris correspondent says:—

Although personally unpopular, M. Joffrin, who is the acknowledged chief of the Possibilists, will succeed in lessening the importance of the May Day demonstration in Paris. I have been round to several of the meetings held in the Boulevard Rochechouart and La Villette, and, with that foreknowledge of Parisian events which long experience and observation give, I gather that there is no set purpose, and above all no enthusiasm, amongst the men who are most interested. There are a few professional rioters who belong probably to the class known as "agents provocateurs," and these, most of whom I know personally, are suspiciously busy. One thing may be safely predicted—there will be a great many arrests, and these will take place at the beginning of the demonstration. By this means the police hope to nip all disorder in the bud, and their plan is undoubtedly the best one.

A Dalziel telegram from Berlin says:—

The Emperor, learning through detectives that the Socialists intend making a concerted coup on May 1, has changed his determination to allow the people the utmost freedom of meeting, but instead has determined upon the suppression of all public demonstration meetings and processions alike The 50 halls leased by Socialists for meetings will be closed on May 1, and strong guards of police will prevent access. All the liquor shops are to be closed on that day, and persons persisting in gathering in the streets are to be immediately arrested.

The petition of the German Social Democrats to the Reichstag for the eight hours day is to have three million signatures. It concludes thus:—"The undersigned trust that the Reichstag will give effect to the resolutions of the International Workmen's Congress in Paris for the German Empire, and thus take the first step towards remedying the most oppressive evils from which the working classes suffer under the present system of production." The measures taken by the various States with reference to the International Labour Demonstration on May Day are being observed in Berlin with attention. The Kreuzzeitung hears from London (its authority is not stated) that the English Government is well aware that the whole May Day movement is directed from London, that suggestions for identical precautionary measures have not been wanting, and that the reports from the various countries show that the advice of the English Government has not been fruitless, and that the various Governments are acting tacitly in concert. The Supreme Council of the Protestant Church of Prussia has addressed a circular to its clergy calling for their help against the Social Democratic movement. The Catholic Bishops have already taken similar steps.

Great efforts are being made among the United States labour organization to promote a widespread strike on May 1 in the interest of an eight hour limit to a day's labour. The leaders in the movement (the New York correspondent of the Daily News says) are the American Federation of Labour and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. The latter instigated the carpenters' strike in Chicago, which is still being carried on with slight prospects of success. The Federation is trying to induce the railway employes to help in the movement by striking on various pretexts, and has succeeded in several instances. The Knights of Labour are also considering the proposal to join, especially by inducing the employés of the New York Central Railway to strike. The Carpenters' Brotherhood has issued an address to all the trade unions of England and Germany warning workmen against coming to America while the eight-hour struggle is pending. The present outlook is that the May demonstration will be practically a failure. But little anxiety is felt among employers concerning it.

The foregoing extracts from various papers will give you a fair idea of the extraordinary agitation in the labor world, and will explain what you may receive by telegram after the 1st of May. The timidity existing on the continent is mainly confined to Austria, where at Biala, a manufacturing town of fifty thousand inhabitants, in Galicia, but on the confines of Silesia, blood has already been spilt, owing to the wickedness and stupidity of the authorities who permitted a drunken mob to accumulate and then shot at them. It must be understood that in Galicia the people in some of the country districts are already suffering frightfully from absolute famine. The Catholic priests have made great efforts to raise subscriptions for relief, but they find the resources of the province are insufficient and that they will be reduced to asking aid from outside. I mention this because the vulgar will immediately come to the conclusion that the riots in Biala were socialist riots—that is, organised by socialist leaders. There was nothing of the kind. No doubt, the whole laboring class throughout the world has been excited by the German Imperial Rescripts, and the success of the Socialists in the German elections, and by the fall of Prince Bismarck. Moreover, the proposed socialist demonstration in favor of the comparatively innocent object of acquiring a universal eight hours' limit to a regulation day's labor has further agitated the minds of the workers. As for the authorities and capitalist world, they have no genuine fear of present disturbances, although they may be mean enough to improve the occasion by propagating alarming rumors. As a matter of fact, a large and influential portion of the socialist party, such as the Possibilists in France, led by men of high culture, are much opposed to the present demonstration. What terrifies the ordinary politician is the sudden manifestation of the solidarity of the world—the universality of the international organisation. You may rest assured, however, that the organisation is still very weak and divided in counsel, and that the proposed demonstration on May-Day is more an ill-judged experiment than aught else. If it fail, the organisers will know where to remedy defects in future.

Railway Items.

Owing to the ministerial derailment yesterday, there was very little news of the genuine railway hue in the Government Departments. We note, however, that the Home Minister received a petition from the local board of the Bahia Blanca North Western Railway for the suspension of a recent decree. The decree in question was issued to approve the plans of the sites of certain stations, and it now appears that the Company deem it advisable to alter the plans. Hence the petition. The alterations would be made in the plans of the stations at Bahia Blanca Toay, and Villa Mercedes.

Mr. Anthony Pelaez has applied to Government for authority to take over Louis Jones' concession for a railway from San Pedro to Santiago del Estero and Rosario de la Frontera.

The following stock has been received by the Pacific Railway since January last;—50 cattle-wagons, 45 platform wagons, 16 vans, 4 first-class carriages, 4 second-class, and for sleeping carriages.

The following items are from the Rio News:—

The contract has been signed for a railway from Itu to Iguape, S. Paulo. The guarantee is 5 per cent on a maximum of $30,000 per kilometre.

A report has been current here that the Sapucahy railway was contemplating the purchase of the Uniao Valenciana and Rio das Flores companies.

The government has nominated Dr. Joao Jose do Monte as its arbitrator in the matter of determining the amount due the D. Pedro I Railway Co. for the rrci sion of its contract. The nominee of the company is Conselheiro Joao Florentino.

Messrs Benjamin Sastre & Co. presented last year an application for privilege to build a railway from La Plata to Cordoba and Santa Fe, and we note that they are bent on carrying out the project, which they have asked Congress to consider at once.

The Government have approved the change of time table proposed by the Pacific, Railway in accordance with which the 5.20 down train will now leave the Central at 4.50 p.m. There will also be an extra train on Sundays and feast days as far as Muñoz.

The Executive have approved the changes proposed in the crossings of San Fernando Canal by the Belgrano to Las Conchas railway.

The Executive have refused to allow the Rosario to Cordaba Railway to make level crossings over the B. Ayres and Rosario line and the prolongation line to Sunchales at kilos 420 and 425.

THE POLITEAMA.

LE JUIF POLONAIS.

Considerable interest was evinced in the production on Saturday last of Erckmann-Chatrian's grim dramatic sketch known to all English playgoers as "The Bells," in which Henry Irving made his first notable success, and eager curiosity was shown to contrast the methods of the doyen of the English stage and the great French actor who is now on these shores. While Irving's impersonation is more jerky, bitter, restless and intense, Coquelin's is far more real and consequently as a work of art more accurate and compatible with the frame work of the story. Irving's peculiar mannerisms, which will always prevent him from attaining the highest rank as an actor whatever we may think of him as a student, were suited by the character of the conscience-stricken murderer, and his exaggerated style was here not so much out of place as in most other characters of his repertoire. He made his mark by the novelty and energy of his characterisation and by the rough power displayed throughout. Coquelin's delineation is in all respects superior, and yet it scarcely carries the audience so thoroughly with it as did Irving's. He is entirely free from the successful foibles of his English compeer and to a true amateur his impersonation must always be the more pleasing.

The curtain rose on Mme. Judic as Catherine seated like a thrifty housewife at her spinning-wheel, welcoming the guests that take shelter at the inn; and very charming indeed she looked in her picturesque Alsatian costume. Her anxiety for her husband's safety on his journey, her wifely joy at his safe return, and her bustling preparations for his comfort were enough to arouse the envy of all bachelors and unhappily married men in the house.

But what a charming Annette Mlle. Kerwich made! What innocence and "naivete," mingled with tenderest feeling, modesty and wit, she displays in her relations with her lover Christian; what filial love and gratitude to her father; what feminine delight at the new cap and ribbons he brings her home!

Coquelin had a difficult and fatiguing rôle: he came out of it only as a great actor could. The uneasiness of Mathias under his dread secret, his distrust of himself, his fear of exposure and shame, his veneer of unconcern presented to the world, his rustic simplicity mingled with his astuteness, all were admirably brought out. And then the last awful scene of the dream; haggard, hunted down, desperate, shamed, he stands before his judges and storms and quails by turns. Even when self convicted, he mingles rage, vexation and despair "Je réclame—c'est faux"; but at last he sinks under the news of his son-in-law's death and his own appalling sentence. When, a raving madman, he comes out of the recess in his chamber and rushes to the foot-lights, we turn from the distressing sight, and feel inclined to get comfortably out of the way of what seems a gibbering maniac. With a spasmodic clutching at his throat, and a cry "La corde! —coupez—la corde!" he falls dead. On the final fall of the curtain, Coquelin, panting and dishevelled from his exertions, appeared again and again to the calls of the delighted audience.

Of the minor characters, Walter's genial, neighbourly good fellowship was represented as if "con amore" by Jean Coquelin jr. M. Duquesne's Christian was satisfactory.

The audience was the largest of the season, the popular parts of the house being crowded. Another good house attended on Sunday, when "Tartuffe" and "Le jeu de l'amour et du hazard," both of which have been previously played this year, were given.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week opened yesterday with a lively roar and the greatest spring—thirty-two points from bottom to top—that the gold premium has ever taken in one day. The public were fairly staggered when the rumor ran in the morning that Minister Uriburu had resigned, and the premium went up, when the news was confirmed, in leaps and bounds, just as the progress of the country was fondly and falsely represented as doing two short years ago. The wildest rumors were afloat about everything. The faces of our friends in Lombard-street, who are so anxious to help the country, must have been a study for a painter yesterday when the news arrived of the resignation of Mr. Uriburu. Dr. J. A. Garcia is his successor.

The cold snap in the weather yesterday amounted to several degrees, and muffs and mufflers were the order of the day. Accounts from the camp report sheep-farmers getting nervous at the prospects for winter.

The postponed field day in the Senate comes off, or ought to come off to-day, as those anxious to witness it should go early as the interest will be heightened perhaps, by the change in the Cabinet.

The "changadores" at the South Dock have far and away surpassed those of the old mole in plundering the public; and they play into the hands of the "cocheros," so between the two sets of villains the unfortunate passengers often burst into tears, especially if they are ladies. It seems supremely ridiculous that neither the port authorities nor the police are able to curb these audac

En nuestra casa Alsina 482.
Remataremos por orden terminante de su dueno, siempre que exceda de la ínfima base arriba indicada, el campo compuesto de 60,000 hectareas.
La venta se hará por lotes de 10,000 hectareas o sean 4 leguas kilometricas.
En cuanto a la bondad de los campos podemos asegurar que son excelentes y de lo mejor de todo la Pampa Central; fueron elejidos por el finado Señor Don Antonio Cambaceres, que era competentisimo en la materia. Para mejor inteligencia de los interesados, podemos ofrecerles un informe municioso de cada lote, que obra en nuestra poder.
Su ubicacion tan proxima á Bahia Blanca, puerto importantisimo, es una ventaja que no debe perderse de vista.
El Ferro carril que actualmente se construye y que unira aquel puerto con Villa Mercedes, San Luis, cruzará estos campos y una estacion en los mismos es casi segura.
Tomando en consideracion todas estas ventajas, creemos que la base de 3 pesos mn por hectarea es sumamente bajo.
Todo comprador sin excepcion oblará 5 ojo al recibir y firmar el boleto de compraventa. Por mas datos ocurrir a nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482.

Liverpool, 7th—Stock of River Plate hides in this market 5,000 salted hides; stock of tallow 2800 pipes.

The National Bank discounted on Saturday one million dollars, principally trade bills, which have been a great relief to the market.

The steamer Aldersgate will arrive in port to-morrow.

Mr. Robert Young, of the Gourock Ropework Company, Port Glasgow, has arrived in the steamship Trent, and is about to open a branch establishment in Buenos Aires.

At after hours little or nothing was done, only a few small lots of gold changing lots at 247 and 248, the rate closing stiffish. It was said that Dr. Juan Agustin Garcia has been offered and has accepted Mr. Uriburu's vacant post

Mr. H. Castle Ayre of Montevideo was welcomed to-day. He comes to establish an agency here of his Empresa de Encomiendas Urgentes.

Mr. J. H. Jones, manager of the English bank of the River Plate, took leave of his friends to-day on his departure for Europe. He leaves on a well earned vacation, as bank managers, especially in the present critical times, have a heavy responsibility to bear, which must tell severely on their stock of nervous tissue. We hope to welcome Mr. Jones soon back again to the Plate at his old post, which in the meantime will be occupied by Mr. Robinson, sub-manager.

Messrs. Tomkinson and Dungey have shipped per s.s. Hydarnes for L'pool 2,000 tons maize, 200 live sheep and 8 steers, the animals being intended as an experiment to test the practicability of export. Mr. Dickenson of Las Lomas Estancia, Cañada de Gomez, will forward per s.s. Montevidean via La Plata 200 young unbroken horses also as an experiment.

Up to date the slaughter of the Lampaio and Chichizola saladeros in the province of Entre Rios is 70,000 head.

Mr. Gonzalez, agricultural engineer, has secured the contract for planting a million trees on Mr. Tabanera's estancia, El Molocoton, in Mendoza. The contract stipulates for 300,000 thorns, 200,000 eucaliptus, 200,000 chesnuts, 200,000 pines and 100,000 walnuts.

Rosario advices show that the movement of cereals through the Western of Santa Fe terminus for the month of May was 225.537 bags containing 1,396,010 kilos wheat and 5,673 bags containing 298,430 kilos lino; the greater part of which has been already shipped. The s.s. Dryden is aground in the port.

Mr. Ugarte, the recently appointed president of the Free Banks Inspection Office, has thrown up his post to leave for Europe. Verily the National Government's posts seem to have hard seats.

Camp advices are bad, the drought and frosts having parched all the lands to the west and north. A little rain is badly wanted.

The sale was reported to-day of a fine central property in Calle Florida between Cangallo and Piedad for 350,000 dollars. Seller a well-known estanciero.

The firm of Tratchet and Arias, of Rosario, have solicited and obtained a year's grace from their creditors.

The new Ministers of Finance and of Justice and Public Instruction, Drs. Juan A. Garcia and J. M. Astigueta were sworn in to-day and received their respective portfolios.

The resignation of the President of the Board of guaranteed Banks, Sr. Ugarte, has been accepted.

The receipts at the Customs' House to day amounted to $37,000.

Sres. Madero & Sons have informed the Government that they will have finished Dock No. 2 (the 4th Section of the Port Works) in 3½ months from the present time and that it will be ready for use on the 1st October; consequently it is now imperative to commence the prolongation of the streets leading to the Dock, beginning with Calles Belgrano and Chile.

The announcement made by Export and Finance some time ago that the American Export and Trading Company of this city intended to establish branch houses in Mexico City and Buenos Ayres for the purpose of displaying samples of American goods suitable for sale in Spanish-America has already been fruitful in suggestion. A correspondent writing from Buenos Ayres, who heartily approves of the idea though putting it in somewhat of another form, advises that "each merchant who wants to share in South American trade contribute say 150 dollars per annum to the institution and maintenance of a syndicate which will dispatch sample wares to Spanish-America. Four hundred merchants would thus assure 60,000 dollars for the bureau's expenditures, correspondents, etc., and for syndicate employes in the large cities to whom an equitable commission on sales would also be allowed. Commodities would then be right under the eyes of the South American merchants to challenge comparison with European imports. There is no doubt that if the idea of the writer were carried out it would be an an object lesson of great value both to the merchants, manufacturers and bankers of this country, as well as to the traders of Spanish-America. In the meantime the American Export and Trading Company is perfecting its preparations for the establishment of its two agencies in the City of Mexico and in Buenos Ayres, and will very soon have a spacious structure in each of those cities, where the visitor will find under one roof articles of American product sufficent to supply his wants for an outfit for his person, his household and his trade.—Export and Finance

"The German barque Hannover arrived at Port Stanley on April 28th with the captain and crew of the British barque Janet Cowan, from Shields for Valparaiso, which vessel was abandoned in a sinking condition off Cape Horn. Before abandoning his vessel the captain set fire to her in order to remove a danger to other vessels. The British barque Seatoller, from the Clyde for Valparaiso, put into Port Stanley on April 22nd with damage to her deck and cargo shifted. It would take two months to effect the necessary repairs. The Seatoller reports the foundering at sea of the British barque Cambrian Duchess, the captain and crew are saved. The British barque Astoria, from Maryport for New Westminster with rails, put into Port Stanley on April 7th with damage to her deck and loss of boats and life buoys. Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

This company is prepared to supply the Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machines, with their accessories, in any quantities They are now coming into general use in Australia, where during the past season upwards of 7,000,000 of sheep have been shorn by them; and it is confidently expected that over 20,000,000 will be shorn by them in that country this year The following are some of their proved advantages over the ordinary shears:—

Estimated at per sheep per clip.

(1) Increase in quantity and value of wool (See testimonials)....	11d.
(2) Increased value of pelts owing to total absence of cuts	1
(3 Saving of 1 per cent. usual allowance for deaths resulting from cuts and stabs	2½
(4) Saving of labor and time, as the work can be performed in half the time usually occupied with the old style of shearing....	1½
Total per clip per sheep.....	16d.
(5) Total absence of suffering to the sheep.

These economies add enormously to the income of the Australian wool-growers, and are applicable relatively to sheep-farmers everywhere.

The Wolseley machines may be seen in actual work at the Agricultural Rural Exhibition at Palermo.

For further particulars apply to the agents, Messrs. Agar, Cross & Co., Calle Defensa 124 & 126, Buenos Ayres, where certificates and testimonials can be seen.

"Curative Paste" BUCHANAN.

Colonia (R. O.), May 1890

Gentlemen—

Having recently accepted the Agency for the "Sale of Curative Paste" for this Republic, I have great pleasure in introducing this dip to your notice.

This dip has been found unrivalled by some of the largest Estancieros that have used it for some time past, and this great success has induced the manufacturer to bring it more prominently before the sheep-farming Republic.

As a cure of Scab it is the most effective, and as a preventive the most permanent that has ever been offered to the public. Scab CANNOT EXIST where "CURATIVE PASTE" is used.

As an economiser of time, labour and expense, it is decidedly the best; curings are less frequent, the necessity of extra men is avoided and consequently less expense incurred.

But in addition to this, we claim and can prove that sheep cured with this dip yield a vastly superior quality and greater quantity of wool than those cured with other dips.

These are advantages that a sheep-farmer cannot, and will not, overlook if he wishes to manage his animals profitably.

Try a sample and satisfy yourselves that in recommending "Curative Paste" to be the most effective, the safest and cheapest dip existing we do but claim that which is admitted by all who use it. (Vide testimonial.

Yours truly
